The brochure has been designed for drone repair services and related accessories. The template is universal that allows you to create various layouts that can be applied not only in one industry, but also for: auto repair, technology service, repair of phones and other electrical devices.

The template was designed in two programs Adobe Photoshop (.psd) and Adobe InDesign (.idml and .indd), so you can quickly and easily edit the layout in your favorite program.

Each file has been properly adapted to a given dimension, and each group is properly signed and grouped, so you can quickly find the right element in the template.

Very easy and quick editing allows you to change fonts, colors, change content and exchange photos.

Images are not included in the source files and are for demonstration purposes only. All the resources used are detailed in the Help.pdf
